

PRESS RELEASE

Supplementary Understanding for the elimination of forced labour in Myanmar extended

Nay Pyi Taw-Myanmar 26 February 2009

The Government of the Union of Myanmar and the International Labour Office (ILO) today extended the Supplementary Understanding on the treatment of complaints regarding forced labour for a further twelve months.

This Supplementary Understanding supports the application of existing laws prohibiting the use of forced labour in Myanmar. It provides a complaints' mechanism, facilitated by the ILO Liaison Officer in Yangon. Under Article 1 of the Supplementary Understanding Myanmar citizens can, with protection from reprisal, seek justice under the law if they are subjected to forced labour.

In welcoming the signing of the extension, the Minister of Labour, His Excellency, U Aung Kyi stated that he “welcomed this continuation of the cooperation between the Government and the ILO which once again confirms the Government of Myanmar’s high level commitment to its policy for the prohibition of forced labour”. The Minister stated further that “the Supplementary Understanding supports the Government’s political commitment to the eradication of forced labour. The rights of citizens are fully guaranteed under the title ‘Citizen: Fundamental Rights and Duties of the Citizens’ in Chapter(viii), and the provision on the prohibition of forced labour in Section 359 of the Constitution of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar which was ratified by the referendum held in May 2008”.